What is the influenza (flu) virus?

Influenza ("the flu") is caused by a virus which infects the nose, throat, and lungs. According to the US Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), the flu is more dangerous than the common cold for children. Unlike the common cold, the flu can cause severe illness and life threatening complications in many people. Children under 5 who have the flu commonly need medical care. Severe flu complications are most common in children younger than 2 years old. Flu season can begin as early as October and last as late as May.

How can I tell if my child has a cold, or the flu?

Most people with the flu feel tired and have fever, headache, dry cough, sore throat, runny or stuffy nose, and sore muscles. Some people, especially children, may also have stomach problems and diarrhea. Because the flu and colds have similar symptoms, it can be difficult to tell the difference between them based on symptoms alone. In general, the flu is worse than the common cold, and symptoms such as fever, body aches, extreme tiredness, and dry cough are more common and intense. People with colds are more likely to have a runny or stuffy nose. Colds generally do not result in serious health problems, such as pneumonia, bacterial infections, or hospitalizations.

During the 2009 legislative session, a new law was passed that requires child care facilities, family day care homes and large family child care homes provide parents with information detailing the causes, symptoms, and transmission of the influenza virus (the flu) every year during August and September.

What should I do if my child gets sick?

Consult your doctor and make sure your child gets plenty of rest and drinks a lot of fluids. Never give aspirin or medicine that has aspirin in it to children or teenagers who may have the flu.

CALL OR TAKE YOUR CHILD TO A DOCTOR RIGHT AWAY IF YOUR CHILD:

- Has a high fever or fever that lasts a long time
- Has trouble breathing or breathes fast
- Has skin that looks blue
- Is not drinking enough
- Seems confused, will not wake up, does not want to be held, or has seizures (uncontrolled shaking)
- Gets better but then worse again
- Has other conditions (like heart or lung disease, diabetes) that get worse

How can I protect my child from the flu?

A flu vaccine is the best way to protect against the flu. Because the flu virus changes year to year, annual vaccination against the flu is recommended. The CDC recommends that all children from the ages of 6 months up to their 19th birthday receive a flu vaccine every fall or winter (children receiving a vaccine for the first time require two doses). You also can protect your child by receiving a flu vaccine yourself.

For additional helpful information about the dangers of the flu and how to protect your child, visit: <http://www.cdc.gov/flu/> or <http://www.immunizeflorida.org/>

What can I do to prevent the spread of germs?

The main way that the flu spreads is in respiratory droplets from coughing and sneezing. This can happen when droplets from a cough or sneeze of an infected person are propelled through the air and infect someone nearby. Though much less frequent, the flu may also spread through indirect contact with contaminated hands and articles soiled with nose and throat secretions. To prevent the spread of germs:

- Wash hands often with soap and water.
- Cover mouth/nose during coughs and sneezes. If you don't have a tissue, cough or sneeze into your upper sleeve, not your hands.
- Limit contact with people who show signs of illness.
- Keep hands away from the face. Germs are often spread when a person touches something that is contaminated with germs and then touches his or her eyes, nose, or mouth.

When should my child stay home from child care?

• A person may be contagious and able to spread the virus from 1 day before showing symptoms to up to 5 days after getting sick. The time frame could be longer in children and in people who don't fight disease well (people with weakened immune systems). When sick, your child should stay at home to rest and to avoid giving the flu to other children and should not return to child care or other group setting until his or her temperature has been normal and has been sign and symptom free for a period of 24 hours.

A change in daily routine, lack of sleep, stress, fatigue, cell phone use, and simple distractions are some things parents experience and can be contributing factors as to why children have been left unknowingly in vehicles...

When life happens... Don't be a
DISTRACTED ADULT

FACTS ABOUT HEATSTROKE:

It only takes a car 10 minutes to heat up 20 degrees and become deadly.

Even with a window cracked, the temperature inside a vehicle can cause heatstroke.

The body temperature of a child increases 3 to 5 times faster than an adult's body.

PREVENTION TIPS:

- Never leave your child alone in a car and call 911 if you see any child locked in a car!
- Make a habit of checking the front and back seat of the car before you walk away
- Be especially mindful during hectic or busy times schedule or route changes, and periods of emotional stress or chaos
- Create reminders by putting something in the back seat that you will need at work, school or home such as a briefcase, purse, cell phone or your left shoe
- Keep a stuffed animal in the baby's car seat and place it on the front seat as a reminder when the baby is in the back seat
- Set a calendar reminder on your electronic device to make sure you dropped your child off at child care
- Make it a routine to always notify your child's child care provider in advance if your child is going to be late or absent, ask them to contact you if your child hasn't arrived as scheduled

During the 2018 legislative session, a new law was passed that requires child care providers, during after-care hours, to lock young children away because of possible reports of neglect, including child and caregiver safety, with information regarding the potential for children's safety to be in harm if a child or teacher reports and accident happens in the child's care. This law is effective on the 1st of July. Thank you!

Discipline Policy

At Classical Preparatory Early Academy, children are guided and directed in a positive, gentle manner. There will be no severe, humiliating, or frightening disciplinary action taken with children. When dealing with a disruptive child, a teacher will always try to talk to and redirect that child. When a child is exhibiting harmful behavior, they may be asked to sit next to the teacher or by himself or herself until he/she has gained control. Discipline will not be associated with food, rest, toileting, or active play time. Under no circumstances will there be any form of physical punishment. Upon rejoining the group, the teacher will discuss with the child his/her behavior, why it is unacceptable, and a positive way to resolve the situation. These instances will be seen as teachable moments to encourage and help the development of social/emotional skills.

If a child's behavior causes serious harm to self/others or is repeatedly disruptive of the classroom environment, the following steps will be taken:

Step One: Parents will be contacted to attend a conference with the teacher and/or Director to inform them of the child's behavior and will be encouraged to work with the school staff in finding a solution. Interventions for home and school will be discussed.

Step Two: A parent conference will be called and a probationary period will begin. During this time, a written behavior plan will be developed with input from the teacher, parents, and the Director. We will use all resources available to resolve the problem. Any major incidents or behaviors that result in harm to self/others that occur during this time period will result in the parent being asked to withdraw the child from the school immediately.

Step Three: If the teacher and/or director documents satisfactory improvement, the child will continue in the class. On rare occasions, a child does not respond to interventions and has needs that we cannot meet. At this time, the parent will be asked to make other arrangements for their child.

Electronic Devices and other Prohibited Items

IPods or other portable music players, video cameras, phones, electronic games, laser pointers, skateboards, roller blades, and other toys that are not part of the academic or extra-curricular program are prohibited on campus. Students may be disciplined, and such items will be confiscated and returned only to the parents upon their request.
